Innocent Mind

Innocent Mind

> By Amara Two children out to play in the snow
 Happy as can be
> Their heads filled up with joyous thoughts
 As little minds should be.

But one girl sits alone inside
> Unable to go play
 For she has grown up much too fast
> And seen what no child should see.

She cannot tell a soul her fear
> That her death may soon be near
 For no one would believe the pain
> She goes through every day.

So the child who grew up too fast
> Must push her fears away
 And imagine that her life is normal

> Though it never again will be.

And as the children play outside
> The grown up girl that's all alone
 Wishes she had her old life back
> And could be a child again.
